

PRESS RELEASE: Darius Mayfield Receives Endorsement from 8-Time Grammy Award Winning Producer, Scott Storch

District NJ-12 Congressional candidate endorsed by music industry's iconic producer

EAST BRUNSWICK—Darius Mayfield, candidate for Congress for New Jersey's twelfth congressional district, received an endorsement from Scott Storch, 8-time Grammy Award winning producer.

Mayfield recently attended a fundraiser for fellow Congressional candidate, John Gibbs of Michigan (R), at former President Donald Trump's club at Mar-a-Lago in Palm Beach last Wednesday, where Storch performed many of his Grammy hits.

Darius's motto of "Not Black. Not White. American." resonated with Scott and as a self-made man, himself, he could appreciate the hustle and determination for improvement with the status quo which Darius is battling. A huge fan of Hip Hop and Rap, Darius was humbled to have met and engaged with music's living legend, Scott Storch.

About Scott Storch:

Scott Spencer Storch is an American record producer and songwriter. He began his music career as the keyboard player for The Roots.

Storch's first two commercial hits were from the production on the track "You Got Me" by the Roots ft. Erykah Badu and Eve and his collaboration with Dr. Dre for the song "Still D.R.E." including the characteristic piano melody. Storch's most successful solo production hit was "Lean Back", a 2004 single by Terror Squad. He has worked on hits by 50 Cent, the Game, T.I., Chris Brown, Christina Aguilera, Beyoncé, Dr. Dre, Nas, Snoop Dogg, Pink, Lil' Kim DJ Khaled, the Game, Berner, Russ, Bone Thugs-n-Harmony, Crim Dela Crim, and many others. Storch was also awarded ASCAP's Songwriter of the Year award in 2006.

About Darius Mayfield:

Darius Mayfield is a candidate for Congress for New Jersey's twelfth congressional district. He announced his candidacy on January 29, 2021. Born and raised in New Jersey, his journey has taken him from humble beginnings in a single-parent household to becoming the youngest Sales Manager of a top 25 auto group to then being the first Black General Manager of the same auto group later in his career.

Darius is an America First candidate who received an endorsement from NJ's Congressman Jeff Van Drew. A self-made businessman, he also continues to pursue his philanthropic endeavors. He co-hosts the Not Black. Not White. American. Podcast and is a co-founder of American Cleanup, a volunteer initiative cleaning up neighborhoods across America, which began in 2019, being inspired by Scott Pressler's efforts in Baltimore. For more information, visit: www.dariusmayfieldforamerica.com.

###

Press Contact: Krissy Brahney

krissy4darius@gmail.com

(609) 500-3827